

RIGHTS OF USE FOR STANDARDS

PSK Standards Association owns the copyright to PSK standards and has granted to its member companies the rights of use for the standards for internal use.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USER RIGHTS

The standards are publications protected by the Finnish Copyright Act. Making copies of them in whole or in part for a work assignment or preparation therefor is by law subject to permission. The permission must be obtained from the PSK Standards Association.

PSK's member companies

The member companies referred to in this instruction include all member companies and communities. The member companies have full rights of use in their own operations in all places of business. The rights of use are obtained through a membership fee based on the member company's turnover.

Parent companies/corporations

The parent companies/corporations have full rights of use in their own operations in those places of business whose turnover is observed in the membership fee based on the member company's turnover.

Subsidiaries

The subsidiaries of the member companies have full rights of use in their own operations in all places of business provided that the turnover of the subsidiary is observed in the membership fee based on the member company's turnover.

Sister companies

The sister companies of the member companies have full rights of use in their own operations in all places of business provided that the turnover of the sister company is observed in the membership fee based on the member company's turnover.

Companies abroad

The member companies' places of business abroad (parent companies, corporations, sister companies, subsidiaries) have full rights of use in their own operations in all places of business provided that their turnover is observed in the membership fee based on the member company's turnover.

In case the rights of use are extended to the member company's place of business abroad then the turnover of the said juridical company must be added to the member company's turnover when determining the membership fee. The PSK Standards Association must always be consulted to ensure correctness of the procedure.

Liability for infringements

If any infringement is detected in the above mentioned companies or places of business of the member company, the member company must immediately take action to give notification of the infringement, see to the extension of the rights of use or, alternatively, cessation of the misuse.
